

Dear Friends

I am grateful to my friend and colleague, Rev Paul Parker in the Cornwall District, for his work on this resource for those looking for low-tech alternatives for worship in the coming weeks. If you would like to be made aware of services that are being live streamed or other resources please email me at nicola.briggs@methodist.org.uk or find me on Facebook: @ Rev'd Nicola Briggs. Please continue to pray for one another and keep in contact by phone, text etc and take comfort from words attributed to John Wesley: "the best of all, God is with us". Blessings, Nicola

In response to the Corona virus, many churches are "streaming" their services online. This means that you can watch them on either Youtube or Facebook.

For those who are looking for a low-tech option, here is a summary of services that are easy to access on TV or Radio:

Service	Station/Channel	Time	How to get it
Choral Evensong: sung evening prayer, usually with an anthem, in a Cathedral style.	BBC Radio 3	Wed 3:30pm Repeated Sunday 3pm	92 – 95 FM and DAB Digital Radio
Sunday Worship: Radio broadcast of worship from a church; the closest to "a normal Sunday service"	BBC Radio 4	8.10am Sunday	103 – 104 FM and DAB Digital Radio
Daily Service; a 15min service of music, prayers and scripture	BBC Radio 4 Long Wave or Radio 4 Extra	09:45 Mon - Saturday	Long Wave: 198 or to get Radio 4 Extra on DAB: After tuning to Radio 4 DAB, select "Daily Service" (from your display, shortly before it is due to start) with the tuning wheel and press the selector button.
Songs of Praise. A religious magazine TV programme; interviews, prayers and hymns/songs. Words appear on the screen so you can join in singing.	BBC One, (TV)	usually 1:15pm

Acts of Worship Available with limited tech savviness. Usually web radio or the BBC Sounds app. Limited to English Language Provision.
